Since 1980, CSC has been providing high quality laboratory equipment. Based in Ashbourne Co. Meath, our own designed and manufactured range of laboratory safety equipment products is complemented by an extensive range of top quality products distributed by CSC. Our dedication to quality ensures that we only select the best suppliers from around the world.

We at CSC are dedicated to our customers needs and to providing products and a level of service that our customers expect. We design and manufacture a range of Fume Cupboards for all applications (built-in acid scrubbers, bench mounted, walk-in and even drive through). Our research and design team has been working for the past 28 years on ensuring our Fume Cupboards are not matched in safety and performance by any other manufacturer.

Other products available from CSC:
